

Artist Biography

the.flyingSAM is the Stage name of Samuel Schultz, an emerging independent songwriter and producer based in Stuttgart, Germany. Known for his emotionally rich and cinematic pop sound, Sam blends dreamy piano parts, orchestral textures, and heartfelt songwriting to create a deeply immersive and introspective listening experience.

Collaborating with guest vocalists, the.flyingSAM crafts songs that explore vulnerability, resilience, and emotional depth—melodies and atmospheres that linger long after the final note.

In April 2025, the EP “Stronger than you know” was released — a project featuring guest appearances by Los Angeles-based Ukrainian pop/soul singer Olya Gram and the Nigerian Heartbeat Gospel Choir led by Tayo Olawepo. The EP blends warm arrangements with powerful vocal performances, creating a sound that gets under your skin and resonates long after the music ends. For the Emotional Edit, British voiceover artist Maya Clarke recorded a moving intro, adding another powerful emotional layer to this version of the song. With over 500 radio airplays between April and May 2025, “Stronger than you know” has made its mark on stations across the globe – from Puls FM in Sweden to Ouro Verde FM in Brazil.

In June 2025, "Stronger than you know" took on a whole new life through a vibrant EDM remix, created in collaboration with renowned French producer and DJ Arthur Conseil. With its laid-back chill-out and deep house vibes, the track has made its way into clubs around the globe – reaching entirely new audiences and expanding the song's international impact.
